TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE GHANA HOTELS ASSOCIATION

Dear Colleagues,

ENDORSEMENT OF MR. RAPHAEL (RALPH) M.K. AYITEY FOR PRESIDENT – ASSOCIATION OF GHANA INDUSTRIES (AGI)

The Ghana Hotels Association is pleased to inform all members of our official endorsement of Raphael (Ralph) Mawuenyega Kojo Ayitey, Chief Executive Officer of Coconut Grove Hotels, for the position of President of the Association of Ghana Industries (AGI) in the upcoming national elections scheduled for Thursday, 27th November 2025 during the AGI Annual General Meeting.

Our endorsement of Mr. Ayitey stems from the unrelenting support of Coconut Grove Hotels to the Association over the years and his active and dedicated membership of AGI for over two decades, serving diligently in several key leadership roles as shown below:

POSITION	PERIOD
Hospitality Sector Chairperson	2013 – 2015
Hospitality Sector Chairman	2015 – 2017
Executive Member, National Executive Council	2017 – 2019
Executive Member, National Executive Council	2019 – 2021
National Treasurer	2021 – 2023
National Treasurer	2023 – Present

Mr. Ayitey's contribution to AGI and the hospitality industry, including the Ghana Hotels Association, has been outstanding. His leadership style is collaborative, forward-thinking, and anchored in integrity and results. He has championed initiatives that promote local sourcing, job creation, youth empowerment, and sustainable industrial growth, aligning with AGI's mission to strengthen Ghanaian enterprise.

As a visionary and pragmatic leader, Mr. Ayitey is committed to ensuring that AGI becomes financially independent, delivers stronger secretariat performance, and creates wider market access for its members.

We therefore call on all members of the Ghana Hotels Association who are part of AGI to support and vote for Mr. Raphael (Ralph) Ayitey in the upcoming elections. Together, let us strengthen the representation of the hospitality and service sectors within AGI's national leadership.

Thank you.
